

Dear Mr. Copps,

Thank you very much for the information you gave during your interview on the Kojo Namde program on 88.5. I agree with you that the issues surrounding monopolistic or duopolistic ownership of any form of communication are very serious. I am very much against such ownership. It is antipathetic to the very real need for freedom of information which exists in America, most especially at this time.

Again, thank you